

Welcome

The Stadtteilsekretariat Kleinbasel (= District Office of Kleinbasel) and the Stadtteilsekretariat Basel-West (= District Office of Basle-West) are involved in supporting liveable and prosperous districts and a culturally lively and respectful social life for its inhabitants. In the districts, they encourage dialogue between the active groups representing the interests of the inhabitants and the trade as well as between the Administration of the Canton and further actors of the District and Urban Development.

Both organisations represent the matters of concern of the respective districts towards the Administration of the Canton and act as connecting link between the districts and the Canton. In regards to the solving of upcoming problems and questions concerning district development, they work closely with Basel-Nord Urban Development and a variety of further departments of the Canton.

Services for the District Inhabitants and the Trade:

Point of Contact and Information Centre

The Stadtteilsekretariat Kleinbasel and the Stadtteilsekretariat Basel-West

- are places to consult in regards to matters of concern and problems of the district inhabitants
- inform the organisations and the inhabitants on new planning intentions of the Administration of the Canton, which especially affect the districts
- arrange contacts to the Administration, specialised offices, district organisations, etc.

Point of Contact for Public Participation Proceedings

- District inhabitants who are especially affected by planning intentions of the Administration of the Canton, are allowed to ask for a participation via the Stadtteilsekretariat Kleinbasel or the Stadtteilsekretariat Basel-West.
